

Central Kansas District consists of Ottawa and Saline counties. The population of the district is 62,000. Offices are located in Minneapolis and Salina and house the seven extension agents, four office professionals, and one 4-H program assistant. The district has two colleges, seven public school districts, eleven high schools, a regional medical center, and is a shopping and employment hub. There are 433,265 acres of cropland. Major crops are wheat, soybean, corn, grain, sorghum, and forage crops. This position will be highly specialized in the area of crop production and will be responsible for programming throughout the district.

TITLE: Extension Agent

PRIMARY AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY: Crop Production

LOCATION: Offices in Minneapolis and Salina. Primary office location for this position is Salina.

APPLICATION DATE: Applications will be accepted through November 13, 2018. Interviews will be December 11, 2018. This position is available on or after December 30, 2018.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Provide primary leadership for the development, dissemination and implementation of research-based educational programs related to production, management and marketing issues involved in crop production. Programs will include but are not limited to: tillage, planting, and variety selection; irrigation; weed, disease, and pest control; soil testing and fertilization; harvesting and post-harvest handling; sustainable practices; soil and water conservation and quality; risk management including crop marketing, crop insurance, and farm bill; decision tools including crop leasing arrangements; and bio-energy.
2. Share responsibility for the 4-H youth development programming related to crop production and assist at the county fairs as needed.
3. Programming will include these steps:
 - a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow's leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
 - b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel and evening and weekend work will be required.
 - c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
 - d) Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
 - e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of the Crop Production Program Focus Team.
4. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.
5. Serve as a member of the Central Kansas District team cooperating in the planning and delivery of district-wide programming and related events.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required:

- Bachelor's degree
- Academic coursework and/or professional development and professional employment related to the position responsibilities.
