The district staff includes five extension agents, a nutrition program assistant, two nutrition assistants, a 4-H program assistant, and three office professionals. The district's two offices are located in Paola, a quickly growing suburb of the Kansas City area and Mound City, a rural community along Highway 52, five miles west of Highway 69.

TITLE: Extension Agent

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY: Family Resource Management and Adult Development and Aging

LOCATION: Offices in Mound City and Paola. Primary location for this position is Paola, Kansas.

APPLICATION DATE: Screening of applications will begin February 15, 2018 and continue until the position is filled. This position is available on or after February 25, 2018. The starting date is negotiable.

Responsibilities:

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Provide primary leadership for the development, dissemination and implementation of research-based educational programs related to family resource management and adult development. Programming will include but is not limited to: health insurance choices and management, financial planning, budgeting and record keeping, consumer credit, taxpayer education, successful aging, family care giving and other adult development and aging topics.
2. Provide support for 4-H development programming related to family and consumer sciences and volunteer development.
3. Share responsibility for community vitality educational programming that addresses community functions of leadership, government, health, economy, ecosystems and social well-being.
4. Programming will include these steps:
  - a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow's leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
  - b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel, evening and weekend work will be required.
  - c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
  - d) Collect evidence of educational program impact.
  - e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of a Program Focus Team.
5. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.
6. Serve as a member of the Marais des Cygnes District team cooperating in the planning and delivery of district-wide programming and related events.
