Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service
K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer. Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension Work, Act of May 8 and June 30, 1914, as amended. Kansas State University, County Extension Councils, Extension Districts, and the United States Department of Agriculture Cooperating, John Floros, Director.
The Kansas Association of Extension 4-H Agents is dedicated to providing professional development opportunities and enhancing the status of the youth professional through collaboration, leadership, and team spirit.

By joining, you become part of a team that is committed to making a difference in the lives of our youth. The organization allows you to network with agents involved in 4-H work nationwide. Agents share ideas and develop partnerships.

Professional opportunities are available to you through yearly state and national workshops, committee work, and a state newsletter, “The Prairie Professional”.

This organization also recognizes agents for their work with 4-H by presenting awards each year. Anyone with any percentage of time devoted to 4-H and youth programs can benefit from membership in KAE4-HA.

“\textbf{To make the best better}”
