

Who We Are

KACDEP, the Kansas Association of Community Development Extension Professionals, is the professional organization for extension professionals working in the field of community development and community vitality. The Kansas chapter has multiple active committees and was formed in 2015. We meet in the fall and spring to discuss chapter business and engage in professional development including tours, speakers and workshops.

KACDEP is an affiliate of the National Association of Community Development Extension Professionals (NACDEP). NACDEP is an organization dedicated to improving the visibility, coordination, professional status and resource base of community and economic development Extension programs and professionals.
