

Contestant #	Reader	Script
100	Slater Blick	Emma, of the Riverside 4-H Club in Lyon County, will be ready for anything including a dinner date and a night on the town. Today Emma is wearing a white floral print dress with a light denim jacket. She choose this project because she enjoys shopping and wanted to learn more about how to put an outfit together. Emma is very active in sports and is involved in multiple 4-H projects, with her favorite being the beef project.
101	Slater Blick	Sage, a twelve year 4-H member of Neosho County 4-H and the Best Yet 4-H Club, found this unique, green dress of nylon, polyester, and spandex to be the perfect outfit for graduation. It is a versatile outfit that can be worn to weddings and church. She loves the way the color compliments her eyes and the fit flatters her frame. Sage is grateful for the friendships and skills she gained in 4-H, and she capped off her experience by serving as the 4-H Intern for the Southwind Extension District.
102	Slater Blick	Dane from the Wildcat Extension District enjoys dressing nice and this suit makes it possible. His black suit jacket is paired with black slim-fit slacks. Dane has chosen a grey dress shirt and a black bow tie. He completes the look with black cap-toe oxford shoes.
103	Slater Blick	Daisy from Rawlins County is going to look beautiful anywhere she goes in this bright blue lined lace dress that is perfectly styled for her. The fitted waist and gored skirt gives fit and flare where it's needed. The lace is actually two different patterns which give the dress a slimming affect. She partnered this dress with a white lace shrug and completed the look with pearls. Blak dance shoes give the final touch to this dressy outfit.

Here comes Alyvia. Alyvia is from the Willowdale 4-H club in Dickinson County, this is her 6th year in the clothing buymanship project. Today she models a simple black dress made of cotton, nylon, and spandex material. This ensemble can be used for numerous occasions. Alyvia enjoys music, so she can dress it up with some heels for her band concerts or attending church. Or wear some more sensible shoes and have an easy school day outfit. Wish her luck as she blossoms into her sophomore year.

104 Slater Blick

Pink, purple and navy plaid shirt is fashion forward for young men. Navy slacks with brown shoes and belt is an updated to for navy. Reid from Douglas County participates in debate, track and choir. His career goal/interest is law school.

105 Slater Blick

Kaytlynn is a nine year member of the Good Luck 4-H Club in McPherson County. She is wearing a black and floral print wrap dress that compliments her waistline. Kaytlynn purchased this white floppy hat, heels, and rose jewelry to tie her look together. Kaytlynn is excited to wear this outfit to many school and church functions.

106 Slater Blick

Saving green and wearing green, Erin of the Twin Creeks District dazzles us with her emerald green dress, which is the color of her birthstone. She has already accomplished many great things in this dress, including receiving a I rating at regional and state music for her flute solo. This elegant piece is 100% fully lined with polyester and is a polyester-elastane blend. She adds to the outfit with shiny black heels purchased years ago for her role in FFA, in which she is still active as president. This garment fits her style needs as it is long and appropriate for all occasions, depending on the accessories she pairs with it. Erin plans to attend Kansas State University and after college, she would like to be a philanthropist, putting her concern for others in the forefront as she helps those in poverty, slavery, and food deprivation.

107 Slater Blick

Here comes Stafford County's Dylan looking sharp in his choice of dress wear. He has chosen slim fitting black slacks paired with a vivid purple long sleeved dress shirt. He has topped it all off with an ombre grey tie. Shiny black dress shoes complete the outfit. Dylan is ready for church, an interview, or school activities. He is a nine year member of the Jolly Workers 4-H club and a sophomore at St. John High School.

108 Slater Blick

Eighteen year old Abby, from Finney County, looked all summer long for a simple black dress to add to her closet. This body con dress is just what she was looking for. The dress features a gold zipper in the back and a unique neckline in the front. For a pop of color, Abby chose to wear hot pink and gold jewelry. Abby is a freshman at Garden City Community College and hopes to be a Speech Pathologist someday. Good Luck Abby, you and that great black dress look ready for new adventures.

109 Slater Blick

Marissa of Ford County is wearing a black and blue dress with a beaded neckline. Marissa will be able to wear this dress to weddings, formal dances and other special occasions. Her dress also compliments the more sophisticated side of her personality. Marissa has added a gold bracelet to accompany the gold beads of the outfit.

110 Slater Blick

Avery from the Frontier District is looking dashing in this Charcoal colored three piece suit. Avery selected this when preparing for Prom and noted that the rental price was very similar to the purchase price. Avery selected a white on white camo accented under shirt to add a bit of his personality to this quality made suit. To add a pop of color and style Avery selected a plaid lavender tie with complementing lavender pocket silk. To finish off his look Avery has chosen camel colored leather shoes and belt. Watch out ladies he is ready for a night on the town.

111 Slater Blick

Harvey County 4-Her and Newton High School senior, Faye is modeling her favorite senior picture outfit with this hunter green halter dress and plaid scarf. She pairs this dress with a pair of suede heels to complete the outfit. Faye has worn this outfit for a national speech contest where she was the winner of the Intermediate Division and plans to wear it for upcoming scholarship interviews.

Faye is the Editor in Chief of the Newtonian Newspaper and a varsity tennis player at NHS. Currently, Faye is the Kansas Shorthorn Lassie Queen and is looking forward to running for National Queen in November.

112 Slater Blick

What to wear for a dressier event? Grace, a sophomore at South Haven High School and a member of the Sumner County Happy Hustlers 4-H Club, answers that question with this navy and pink floral knit dress. The dress features extended shoulders, pleated skirt and a keyhole back. Grace chose a pink and gold necklace, earrings and purse to accessorize her dress. She added navy wedges accented with gold zippers to complete her outfit. Grace's other projects include showing beef and swine.

113 Slater Blick

Isaac, from the Frontier District, is fourteen and an eight-year member of the Clover Wranglers 4-H Club. He is a member of a performance choir and a volunteer-in-training with his local fire department. Whether at school, traveling with the choir or working at the station, Isaac is most comfortable in a pair of jeans and he believes that adding this shirt and jacket prepare him for just about anywhere he might go. Isaac has completed this outfit by adding his favorite cowboy boots.

114 Slater Blick

Here is Taylor wearing this floral dress that has many vibrant colors. It can be accessorized with many items, such as her olive green cardigan. This she can also wear with other outfits in her wardrobe. Taylor is a member of the Chamness 4-H Club in Lyon County. She is excited to start off her senior year at Emporia High and is looking forward to wearing her outfit on game days.

115 Slater Blick

116 Slater Blick	Here comes Josie dressed to impress anyone whether it be at her first semi-formal dance at school or a family friend's wedding. This is Josie's 8th year in 4-H and her 8th year in the buymanship project, she is from the Frontier District, Lyndon. Today she has chosen to wear a sleeveless black and pink floral halter dress made of polyester and spandex. Keeping it simple Josie has decided to accent her outfit with rose gold bracelets to bring out the floral color in the dress and black heeled sandals. Doesn't look like she's ready to dance the night away?
117 Slater Blick	Royce, from the Phillips-Rooks District, is ready to go back to school this fall in style. He has paired his favorite plaid western shirt and comfortable jeans then added a warm vest for those cool nights. A black felt cowboy hat and a pair of glazed black boots completes the look. Royce is going to be a sophomore at Emporia State University this fall. He is majoring in Elementary Education.
118 Slater Blick	Aleeya of Geary County is wearing a flowy, stylish off-the-shoulder navy blue dress. The dress is accented with pink roses and olive green leaves. This semi-formal dress can be worn to church, school events, or any other type of gathering. The dress was purchased on sale at Rue 21, and is one of her favorites. Thanks Aleeya!
119 Slater Blick	Sidney of the Explorers 4-H Club, Miami County/Marais des Cygnes District, is wearing a blue halter style dress with a seascape design that resembles Santorini Greece. The vintage style, blue color, clouds and sailboats are unique and fun! Surely no one else will have this dress! The white heels and compass necklace finish the look. Sidney likes the vintage style and the pattern in the fabric reminds her of a dream travel destination. She plans to wear this dress for warm summer outings with friends and family.

120 Slater Blick	Seth, from Shawnee County, is ready for the Rodeo in his Wrangler Original Cowboy Cut blue jeans and cool cotton/polyester blend western button-up shirt. He finished the outfit with his brown belt and boots, and no cowboy goes anywhere in the summer without his straw hat. Seth a 10-year member of the Auburn 4-H Club and this is his 5th year in Clothing Buymanship.
121 Slater Blick	Rebecca, from Southwind District, is wearing a sparkly, maroon, off the shoulder dress. She wore this to her Winter Formal and to her friends Quinceanera. Her favorite part of this outfit is the back. This dress paired with silver hoop earrings and a diamond bracelet, along with black suede heels makes the perfect formal outfit.
122 Slater Blick	Butler County 4-H'er Lillie is dressed in business attire with her black blazer, black pinstriped slacks and hot-pink draped shell. She completes her look with simple silver jewelry combined with a black handbag and pumps. Lillie is very involved in church and youth group activities as well as STUCO and sports at Circle High School. She loves singing and belongs to church youth choir and two choirs at school. Interested in leadership, this sophomore loves 4-H state leadership events and has leadership roles in her club, the Benton Busy Bees.
123 Slater Blick	Here is Easton, junior at Burlington High School from Coffey County looking handsome in his Khaki dress pants, navy blue shirt with coordinating white, navy and black button down shirt. He pulls the stylish outfit together with comfortable but dressy shoes and a leather belt. This outfit can be worn to several events and can be dressed up or dressed down easily by just wearing one of the shirts and changing into jeans or shorts. All items coordinate with several other clothing items in his wardrobe and are machine wash cold and tumble dry low.

124 Slater Blick	An eight-year member of the Jolly Jayhawker 4-H Club in Dickinson County, Della is wearing a maroon ¾ sleeve shirt paired with patterned black and tan pants. She completes the outfit with black flats and a long multi-strand necklace. In addition to clothing, Della’s main projects are photography, visual art, and leadership. She is active in school groups, sports, and church.
125 Slater Blick	Delaney has chosen a burgundy dress with ruffle lace sleeves and taupe pumps. She accessorizes with pearl jewelry and a taupe handbag for a classic look. This Circle High School junior enjoys showing cattle, playing volleyball and leading as part of Student Council and National Honor Society. Delaney currently serves as a Butler County 4-H Ambassador and 4-H Council Member.
126 Slater Blick	Calen, an 11 year member of the Humboldt Creek 4-H Club in Geary County, is wearing a blue stylish suit jacket and slacks made of fine wool for comfort and easy care. The suit is completed with a subtle herringbone pattern and smooth flat-front slacks. He has added dimension to his outfit with a pink dress shirt, bright colored paisley patterned tie and pink pocket square. Calen is a senior at Junction City High School and plays football. He is president of his club and a Geary County 4-H Ambassador and enjoys showing steers and being a camp counselor. After graduation, Calen plans to attend Kansas State University and study mechanical engineering.
127 Slater Blick	Lily is a ten-year member of the Clover Wranglers 4-H Club, in the Frontier District. She enjoys gardening, singing with the choir, teaching yuonger kids, and training as a volunteer first responder. Lily is comfortable and ready to go, well, almost anywhere in this casual outfit. She loves the pattern on this mini dress which she has paired with black leggings and black boots. Lily has chosen to complete her look by adding a jacket handed down to her by her older sister.

128 Slater Blick	Cadence, from the Wildcat District, is wearing a maroon outfit, with tan Baily bow UGG boots. She has a maroon & tan long cotton/acrylic blend sweater and off-white shirt and matching maroon pants. Have fun Cadence.
129 Slater Blick	Up next is Spencer from the Blackjack 4-H Club in Pottawatomie County. Spencer is sporting a newly purchased J Ferrar charcoal suit. The suit coat is a slim fit with double vented back. His pants are also slim cut with a complementary tapered leg. The Suit is a polyester and rayon combination, helping with the style and comfort for long day wear. Spencer's white dress shirt is a cotton/polyester blend fabric. The slim cut appeals nicely to Spencer's build. Spencer chose a classic red and blue paisley tie with purple undertones. He accessories his suit with a pocket square, trendy dress socks, classic black shoes and his 2017 Key Award lapel pin. Spencer plans to wear this attire to upcoming FBLA conferences, church, formal events and Senior pictures. Good luck with your Senior year at Rock Creek.
130 Brooklyn Hahn	Paige, from the Golden Prairie Extension District - Oakley, chose this lovely shell pink sleeveless dress to wear for homecoming and other formal events at her high school. The simple style is comfortable as well as classic, plus a value as she purchased it on sale and it is a versatile piece. Paige chose elegant long earrings, a simple bracelet and rose gold shoes to accent her dressy look. Paige is involved with dance at Colby High School where she will be a junior and is an accomplished quilter and artist..
131 Brooklyn Hahn	Cara from the Wildcat Extension District is ready for any black tie affair in her black Sheri Hill prom dress. Her dress has a red underlay and red floral accents. She accessorizes this outfit with silver flower earrings, and black & white bracelets. Cara completes her outfit with black heels.

132 Brooklyn Hahn	Roman of the Rose Hill Rustlers 4-H club in Butler County is dressed for success in his three piece crosshatch grey suit. He had his suit taylored for his slim build. It features high arm holes, narrow body, six pockets, a vented back and notched lapel. The slacks are a modern slim fit with a flat front. It is made for dancing in with a wrinkle resistant stretch fabric blend. Roman likes how many different ways he care wear the three pieces. Roman enjoys the 4-H shooting sports program. He has qualified for State Competition in Trap, Skeet, Compound Archery and Small-bore Rifle. Looking good Roman!
133 Brooklyn Hahn	Here comes Moline Shining Star 4-H'er, Haley, in her stunning two piece charcoal gray prom dress. The halter top features a crisscross back with black, pink & gray beading. The beading has an ombre' effect on her long flowing skirt. A silver & pink rhinestone necklace & bracelet along with her silver rhinestone heels complete the look. Haley is a Rolling Prairie District 4-H member.
134 Brooklyn Hahn	Marissa of Harvey County is ready for any formal occasion in her emerald green dress. Black pumps and clutch along with diamond jewelry complete her look. Marissa is a sophomore at Hutchinson Community College majoring in Elementary Education and animal science. This is her final year in 4-H. Marissa loves showing goats, swine and cattle. She is involved in collegiate 4-H and Phi Theta Kappa at HCC and is also a part of CORE, a young adult ministry program. She would like to become a 4-H agent after graduation.
135 Brooklyn Hahn	Michael a Reno County 4-Her can beat the heat in this blue sports jacket and pink shirt. With this linen and cotton blend, he doesn't have to worry about working up a sweat, whether he is going to church, college events, or going out with friends. Michael can take on any of this Kansas weather comfortably with this light colored outfit.

136 Brooklyn Hahn	Jaden is wearing a mauve-pink, floor length formal. The dress features a halter-style bodice with a lace overlay, embellished with jewels. To accessorize, Jaden has chosen some eye catching silver bracelets and earrings to complete the look. Jaden is a a nine year member of Jolly Workers 4-H Club in Stafford County. She enjoys woodworking. She is a senior at St. John High School.
138 Brooklyn Hahn	Brevin from Douglas County is wearing a cotton, polyester, elastane golf polo that is cool and comfortable. This soft fabric dries quickly and with its stretch allows me to move freely. With its tow tone turquoise stripe and 3 button placket it is sure to get attention while on the golf course. The grey nylon and polyester shorts compliment the polo shirt, while the grey belt and navy shoes finish off the outfit. Brevin plays soccer for Lawrence High School.
139 Brooklyn Hahn	Alexa from the Cottonwood Extension District, Great Bend, is modeling a red, cold-shoulder top she purchased for less than $3 at a Dillard's store closing sale. The strappy sandals were under $4! She paired this look with a versatile pair of skinny jeans, her favorite pair of sunglasses and some simply jewelry. Alexa is a member of the Ellinwood Energizers 4-H Club and will be a high school junior this fall.
140 Brooklyn Hahn	Here is Paige from the Cottonwood Extension District modeling a cute off-the-shoulder floral top. To add to the look, she added black denim jeans & a pair of beaded heels. Paige is a 4-H Ambassador and this is her 8th year in 4-H. She enjoys singing and taking pictures. Paige is a sophomore at Great Bend High School.

141 Brooklyn Hahn

Nickolas an 11 year member of the Lucky'Leven 4-H Club in Pottawatomie County wanted an outfit for Induction to the National Honor Society, so he purchased this long sleeved shirt, Khaki colored dress slacks and a coordinating tie for his 2018 buymanship project. Nick also selected this jacket to compliment his outfit. A black belt and black dress shoes completes his project. Nick spends many hours practicing and performing with the Wamego High School concert, jazz, marching and pepbands. He plans to wear his outfit to church and special occasions. Good luck during your Senior year Nick!

142 Brooklyn Hahn

Kelly, from Kingman County, is modeling a casual boho outfit. You can google boho later. The shirt is flowy, open shoulder, long sleeve, and floral. She is wearing dark denim skinny jeans with strappy brown flip flops. She has beautiful gold necklaces and earrings to complete the outfit. Kelly wore this outfit for senior pictures for York's modeling team. She can also wear this outfit on date nights or to school.

143 Brooklyn Hahn

Ready for fall, here is Kacey from the Walnut Wonder Workers 4-H club, Wildcat District, Girard. Perfect for back to school, church social, or out with friends. Kacey paired a floral print t-shirt with a peach cardigan sweater. Rolled skinny jeans, gives her outfit a slimming appearance. Casual dressy flip flops and simple jewelry gives it an understated but polished look. Perfect for her junior year in High school, Kacey is excited about this school year and another year to model for 4-H.

Dinner, dancing and a night to remember is what Aubry, Ellis County Buckeye Jr. Farmers 4-H Club member, has in mind when wearing this elegant gown. This beautiful gown is perfect for her vintage themed prom. The sleeveless, form fitted, mermaid gown is comfortable to wear and easy to move designed, with 100% polyester black lace highlighted with a 100% polyester rose beige underlay. The dress is made even more striking with black scroll appliques to accent Aubry's figure. Aubry complements her beautiful gown with rose gold diamond earrings, bracelet and necklace. To complete her look, she is wearing rose gold beige high heels. This is sure to be a memorable night for Aubry as she dances the night away in elegance.

145 Brooklyn Hahn

Beautiful and poised Audra makes her way from McPherson County for her first State Fair Buymanship review. This perfect paisley 2-piece prom dress helped Audra blow the crowd away one last time at her senior prom. The high collar white top fit well with the blue and white mixed paisley skirt. To add a bit of dazzle to the dress, silver gems accent the bodice giving it the perfect touch. When at the store, she fell instantly in love with the dress and knew she had made the right choice.

146 Brooklyn Hahn

Joel a Harvey County 4-er, has began his busy senior year at Newton High School. he is wearing a stylish blue suit that is perfect for formal occasions. The outfit is completed with a light blue dress shirt and a striped tie.

147 Brooklyn Hahn

Phillipsburg High School prom found Jillian wearing this elegant, timeless, full length black formal dress. This dress is the perfect dress for any formal occasion. The rhinestone necklace and earrings pair perfectly with the stones that accent the side seams of the dress. The black train is sure to keep this dress formal and classy.

148 Brooklyn Hahn

Alysson of Walnut Creek District Ness City is ready to dance the night away. Alysson is wearing her blue prom dress with silver accessories. Her favorite thing about the dress is that it has pockets. Alysson is very active in lots of organizations in her town. Keep up the hard work.

149 Brooklyn Hahn

150 Brooklyn Hahn

Stepping into his senior year at Kapaun Mount Carmel, Jonah of the Sedgwick County Achievers 4-H club, is sizzling in his Millennial Blue suit. Finishing one of his last years as a member of the Achievers 4-H club, Jonah will be ready for senior pictures, school dances, the annual teen council formal dinner, and CIA in Topeka. His ensemble is accented by his sunny yellow tie, cognac shoes and belt, and silver watch. During his time in 4-H, Jonah has enjoyed being a camper and a camp counselor, attending Discovery Days, being active in Teen Council, and various other 4-H projects. Enjoy your time in the sun, Jonah.

151 Brooklyn Hahn

Madelyn, a member of the Eager Beavers 4-H Club in Southwind District, Yates Center. She had a great time at her high school winter formal wearing this stunning off the shoulder red dress. Her black high heel shoes complement the dress. She has chosen a rhinestone necklace, rhinestone stud earrings, and a simple rhinestone bracelet to complete her ensemble. This is Madelyn's 9th year in 4-H. Her activities include running cross country, basketball, track, cheerleading, dance, and church youth group.

152 Brooklyn Hahn

A junior at Northern Valley and from the Twin Creeks District, Isabelle found this deep purple sequins cocktail dress for her winter formal at school. She was so proud of this purchase as she found the dress on an online consignment store. It had never been worn as the tags were included and she paid 1/4 of the price. The crew neckline has a gold chain embellishment which eliminates the need for finding a necklace. She is wearing black leather heels; and added a gold bracelet to help make the gold chain neckline pop. The shiny black clutch with gold zippers tie the two together. She can't wait to dance the night away in her sparkling dress!

153 Brooklyn Hahn

Kendall from Greenwood County is modeling his suit he bought to wear to prom. His 100% wool suit is a slim fitting single breasted jacket with a notch collar and button closure. The trousers are a flat front straight leg. He is wearing it with a burgundy shirt and matching tie. Black belt and shoes finish out this outfit. Kendall enjoys hunting and fishing.

154 Brooklyn Hahn

Karsyn of the Indian Creek Club in Shawnee County is a fourth generation 4-H'er and an 8 year member. For her casual outfit, Karsyn wanted something versatile that she could wear to school and go to town to hang out with friends. Karsyn first found the burgundy off the shoulder rayon top. Next, she found the denim capris and a 100% cotton, olive green jacket on the clearance rack. She chose a brown pair of sandals with a brown hand clutch, a bronze color of earring, and sunglasses that were also on clearance. Karsyn loves this outfit because she wears it with so many other things in her wardrobe throughout the year. She is currently in the 10th grade at Seaman High School where she plays piccolo in the marching band.

155 Brooklyn Hahn

Summer, fall, winter, spring. This outfit is full of different combinations for every season of the year. Taylor from Shawnee County, found this outfit in between basketball games one weekend at Kohl's and they were such great deals that she could not pass them up. First she found the fuchsia colored weekend tank, and as she searched the sales rack some more, she found the 100% cotton, olive green jean jacket, then she found the cropped denim pants. Taylor has already won the tank top several times with different shorts. She plans to wear the jacket more during the fall, winter and spring with other shirts or dresses underneath. Taylor plans to wear this outfit to school, church, or just a night on the town. This is Taylor's 10th year in 4-H as well as her 9th year in the clothing buymanship project. She is currently president of the Indian Creek 4-H club and is a Senior at Seaman High School.

156 Brooklyn Hahn

Kolby of Greenwood county is ready for dress up days at school or a livestock judging contest. His classic Haggar khaki pants are non-iron and ready to wear anytime. The blue dress shirt has a modern design and stretch fit. The blue plaid tie, brown shoes and western belt complete the outfit. Kolby enjoys showing lambs, shooting his bow and shot gun. .

158 Brooklyn Hahn

Emily, Frontier District - Ottawa, is rocking this everyday western styled wear, dark boot-cut denim jeans with white stitching, topped with two tanks giving it a pop of color navy with peach underneath. Bringing in a little bit of Japanese culture pulling this outfit together with a fun western styled burgundy colored Kimono, with printed cattle skulls with multicolored flowers, paired with brown twisted x's. Finishing out the outfit with some bling, brown bejeweled western belt and matching necklace and earrings.

159 Brooklyn Hahn

Slater of the Cloverleaf 4-H Club in Barber County danced his heart away at his last high school prom. He is wearing a Stafford black notched lapel suit jacket and black flat front slacks. Today he paired it with a light green button up shirt and accessorized it with a fashionable black and green checkered tie, black shoes and belt. He has had the opportunity to wear this outfit multiple times already such as for prom, forensics, interviews, and graduation. While Slater's high school days might be over, he is ready for whatever formal event he has at Kansas State University where he will be majoring in milling science

Alyssa a member of the Wildcat Labette District, Altamont. She is a senior at Labette County High School is wearing her junior prom dress. The dress has a beige underlay covered by a black lace overlay. The body style of this dress is semi-mermaid style. Alyssa has chosen to accent this dress with red high heels, red jewelry and a red corsage. Other 4-H projects that Alyssa enjoys are poultry, rabbits, pets, and visual arts. After her senior year in high school, Alyssa plans to attend Emporia State University to major in education either elementary education or in secondary math.

160 Elly Fowler

This is Mary from Sumner County. Her stylish floor length, black formal gown features a sleeveless, round neckline with sequined bodice, and a key hole back. The bodice and skirt are made of a polyester blend. She paired this dress with black heels, a silver and pearl bracelet, and a silver pendant necklace with matching earrings. Mary plans to wear this dress to her church Christmas party and Winter Formal.

161 Elly Fowler

Jay from the Glendale Reapers 4-H club in Pratt County is modeling a nice western outfit. This arrangement is composed of an Ariat button down shirt, wrangler jeans, a brown belt, and Twisted X shoes. Jay enjoys wearing this outfit because not only does it look nice, but it is also comfortable, allowing him to do many activities within FFA and 4-H. He plans to wear this outfit to many upcoming school events or even to the 4-H Achievement Night.

162 Elly Fowler

Lauren, a member of the Blue Ribbon 4-H Club from Coffey County is modeling this Kentucky Derby themed outfit. The dress is made of 95% polyester and 5% spandex which makes for a comfortable fit. Lauren chose to accessorize her outfit with a black purse. Lauren chose a classic black pump to finish her look. Lauren loves the classic look of this outfit.

163 Elly Fowler

164 Elly Fowler	Michaela is modeling a blue lace, halter, shift dress. She chose to accent the dress with a diamond bracelet, silver earrings, a flower patterned purse, and silver sandals. I do not pay attention to fashion trends as I like to dress for my own comfort and happiness. Michaela is a member of the National Society of High School Scholars. She is interested in pursuing a career in elementary education. Michaela is a 4-Her in Douglas County.
165 Elly Fowler	Jack is a 10-year member of the Happy Harvesters 4-H Club in Lyon County. Jack is starting his senior year and will look dapper at school functions in the cotton blend Ralph Lauren button down shirt. This versatile shirt can be paired with khaki shorts or it can be dressed up with a belt, leather moccasins and BKE Tyler boot-cut jeans for the livestock showing.
166 Elly Fowler	Kate, an 11 year member of the Sedgwick County Delano 4-H club, is enjoying the sunshine in this darling outfit. Her sleeveless sky blue dress helps keep her cool in the summer heat. The uneven hem, reminiscent of the ocean waves, adds a touch of interest to the otherwise simple dress. She accessorizes with nude heels and timeless jewelry. Kate lights up the stage as she waves good-bye to 4-H.
167 Elly Fowler	Jade from the Sunflower District - Sherman County is wearing a black romper with white pinstripes, it is made of Rayon and is very versatile in any way you wish to dress it up. She can casually dress it down as an everyday look, or as you can see today, she dressed it up with rhinestone earrings, a bracelet, and a necklace. To pull together her look she added a vibrant pink pump. Jade loves how the pink shoe gives her a pop of color that makes a statement. She purchased this outfit for senior pictures but plans to wear this dressed up look on New Year's Eve, in London on her All American Cheerleading Excursion.

Makayla is a member of the Winchester 4-H Club from the Meadowlark District-Oskaloosa.

For special events Makayla is wearing a black and white striped romper, paired with a yellow beaded necklace, black heels, and a straw hat. This easy care outfit is suitable for many summer events.

169 Elly Fowler

Makayla will be a senior at Jefferson County North High School in the fall.

Here comes Brooklyn, a thirteen-year member of the DIY Jrs 4-H club in Ford County. Boots are a girl's best friend so Brooklyn purchased this pretty Denim Romper to wear with her favorite dressy fringe cowgirl boots. She added a brown western belt and turquoise jewelry to brighten the outfit and stay with the western look. Brooklyn will be Freshman at Dodge City Community College and enjoys being outside with friends and family. It looks like this purchase will be a boot scootin' hit, Brooklyn.

170 Elly Fowler

Tyler is wearing a long sleeve, button up western shirt which is in a black, grey, and teal colored star-burst print. Pairing it with blue jeans, boots, and a belt he is ready for the show ring this year at county fair where he will be showing meat goats. He also wears this outfit for casual dress occasions. Other 4-H projects Tyler participates in are shooting sports and foods. He will be a senior this fall at Riley County High School.

171 Elly Fowler

Here comes Alyssa with the Watch Us Grow 4-H Club in Morton County. Today Alyssa is wearing a striped romper with simple black heels. The romper is made out of polyester, and this is a very flowy material, and is paired with a black bando. Alyssa got this outfit while having a shopping day with her sister in Garden. When Alyssa picked this outfit out she knew it had to be for buymanship. She found this at a great price, a great fit, and couldn't wait until she could wear it. This year Alyssa decided to go with the color theme "black and white" for both of her outfits. Looking good Alyssa!

172 Elly Fowler

173 Elly Fowler

Zoey, a nine year member of 4-H in the Southwind Extension District, Iola. She is wearing her floral print romper. She accented her outfit with red Mary Jane heels and silver jewelry. Zoey loves the cold shoulder design and comfort of the outfit. She has already worn the outfit to several formal occasions, including Emerald Circle Banquet this past spring to receive her Wood Science State Award. Zoey will be a senior this fall at Humboldt High School.

175 Elly Fowler

Addie is ready to find some fun in this cute, comfortable outfit. She is wearing a colorful kimono, denim capris, and white top. This kimono is versatile ~ it can be worn with long pants and a long sleeve top for cooler weather. She loves her black tassel necklace that compliments the black tassels around the bottom of her kimono. Addie is also wearing earrings and bracelet, black hat, and black sandals. Addie has been in the clothing project for 8 years. She is a 10-year member of the Tampa Triple T's 4-H Club in Marion County where she serves as the president of her 4-H club and president of the Marion County 4-H Council. Addie will be showing her style this fall when she begins her junior year at Hillsboro High School!

176 Elly Fowler

Carly, a seven-year member of the Linn Livewires 4-H Club in Washington County, River Valley District, is stepping out in style in this three piece outfit that can be worn for both casual and dressier occasions. The kimono is made of 100% polyester and features a floral and paisley design. The cotton blend oatmeal colored top features a flowing layered tank made of polyester. The red amber denim cropped pants were chosen to compliment the floral design of the kimono. Carly completes her outfit with a gold toned charm necklace, hoop earrings, and tan leather sandals.

177 Elly Fowler

Nick is a 10-year member of the Morning Glory 4-H Club in Johnson County. He has chosen dark gray washable trousers, a long-sleeve sky blue dress shirt, and a dark wool/polyester blend vest. His necktie coordinates with the cuffs and detail on his shirt, as well as his socks. He has chosen a brown leather belt and shoes to complete his outfit. His pocket watch was a groomsman gift from his brother's wedding. Nick has been a Johnson County 4-H Ambassador for three years and is looking forward to attending National 4-H Congress in Atlanta in November.

179 Elly Fowler

Sonya, an 8 year member of the Sedgwick County Valley Victors 4-H club coordinated her rose and blue colored blouse featuring bare shoulder sleeves, rose colored pants, blue flats, and rose colored jewelry, using easy care secondhand and sale items that could be worn to church, school, and other events. She also enjoys baking, fiber arts, and drawing.

180 Elly Fowler

Blake from River Valley, District is ready for his freshman year at Republic County Jr/Sr High in this stylish grey suit. Blake liked the fit of the suit and thought that the light grey was a great color to wear year round. Being able to match different colors of shirts and ties with the suit to create different looks was something else he liked about this suit color. Blake was happy to find his suit on sale and saved even more money by using a coupon he found online. Way to be a smart shopper Blake!

181 Elly Fowler

This is Michaela, a member of the Sedan Willing Workers in the Rolling Prairie District. For her western wear she has chose a pair of dark blue Miss Me jeans with jewels on the back pockets. She is wearing a grey sleeveless shirt with light purple hearts on it and it buttons up the front. Michaela is wearing a black camisole underneath. To finish out the outfit she is wearing square toed cowboy boots and a jeweled western belt. She can wear this to show her animals and for a night out on the town in college.

182 Elly Fowler

Shelby, from the Southwind Extension District, is excited to begin her freshman year in college. She will be sporting a cold-shoulder style, burgundy shirt with skinny jeans. Shelby will be able to wear this outfit to classes and outings with her friends. Shelby enjoys running, dancing, and spending time with her family and friends. Shelby will be dancing at Allen Community College this upcoming year.

183 Elly Fowler

Ian from Marais Des Cygnes District purchased these dress pants and shirt to wear together or as pieces of other outfits for senior year and 4-H events. He wore this outfit for senior pictures and will use it for baccalaureate and graduation. He plans to wear it for National 4-H Congress. The gray dress pants are 100% polyester and feature a pleated front, back pockets with button thru closures, and cuffed pant legs. The cotton-polyester blend dress shirt features a slim fit with spread collar and adjustable button cuffs. He has finished his look today with a red tie and coordinating shoes and belt.

184 Elly Fowler

Neva is from the Meadowlark District-Oskaloosa. Neva will begin her junior year in this classic, casual jean skirt outfit. She is wearing a rust colored top with raglan sleeves and a gathered neckline with a stitched pleated trim. It is a rayon and spandex machine washable blend. Her snap-front jean skirt is detailed with flat felled seams to create slimming lines. The frayed hem adds a shabby chic element for fun. She pairs this versatile outfit with brown strappy, chunky-heeled sandals. Her look is completed with pearl and copper jewelry.

185 Elly Fowler

Anya is looking forward to fall of her Junior year at Southeast of Saline. Anya is wearing a rose jacket paired with a lacy shirt and a jean skirt. This outfit can be mixed and matched with many pieces in her wardrobe which makes it very versatile. The outfit is easy care. To complete the outfit she has chosen short booties, and jewelry. Anya is a 4-H member in the Central Kansas District, Salina.

186 Elly Fowler

Benjamin is an eight year member of the Washington Headliners 4-H Club from Clay County, in the River Valley District. Benjamin is wearing a charcoal suit. The flat front pants were a surprising purchase from Goodwill. The rest of the ensemble is J.Ferrar brand and was purchased at different times off clearance racks at JC Penneys. Ben shows plenty of school spirit with blue socks, blue suspenders, and blue in his tie. His class ring even has a blue stone in it. The black dress shirt looks great with or without the jacket. The outfit all started with convincing Ben that blue suspenders were a good purchase to wear on basketball game days. Black square toe dress shoes complete the outfit.

187 Elly Fowler

Catherine is ready to compete in her English equestrian attire. The sleek, mesh jacket is sure to keep her cool while impressing the judges. She pairs the jacket with a white shirt, traditional khaki breeches, and knee high riding boots, all of which are required in her Hunter and Dressage disciplines. Catherine wears this outfit to show competitively on the US Eventing and US Hunter/Jumper circuits. Good Luck Catherine! Catherine is a 4-H member in Marshall County.

188 Elly Fowler

Rylee is a standout in the show pen in her purple showmanship jacket! She adds black pants, belt, & boots and tops her outfit off with a silver-belly felt hat. The shine on this jacket and her sparkling smile gets her noticed as she and her horse, Rex, compete in showmanship classes at horse shows. She is a 8 year 4-H member from Edwards County. Her favorite projects include her horse, Rex, of course; beef and photography. Rylee also plays volleyball, basketball and enjoys band and vocal music at Kinsley High School.

189 Elly Fowler

Mason from Geary County is modeling his western outfit including jeans, vest, paisley button-down shirt, boots, and hat. He will be a senior at Junction City High School and a member of the FFA. He is also a Geary County 4-H Ambassador and Vice President of his 4-H club. His favorite project is woodworking because he gets to work with his grandfather.

In her ninth year of 4-H in Sunflower District, Sharon Springs, Regan went shopping for a classy semi-formal outfit she could wear to the upcoming 4-H banquets and weddings. Her tea length dress features a bright, colorful, floral print in polyester with a fit and flare design that has added pockets hidden in the pleats for fun and function. She was pleased to find a black 3/4 length sleeve cardigan that drops at the perfect length on her torso to complement the flare on the skirt of the dress and has a ruffle detail at the hem to add some detail. Complimenting the floral print, she adds a pop of color with her royal blue pumps and finishes her dressy look with a faux pearl necklace and earrings. Her favorite thing about this look is the extreme bargain she got while getting 50% off of clearance prices that made it easy to fit into her budget. Regan loves to show swine with her involvement in 4-H and hopes to be able to wear this dress to the Emerald Circle banquet one year as the swine KAP winner.

190 Elly Fowler

Taelur is from the Meadowlark District-Oskaloosa, and is a member of the Clover Power 4-H Club, and serves as the Club Historian.

Taelur is wearing an outfit he has selected to wear at the 4-H Fair Dance. He is wearing a black dress shirt and dark denim jeans. He accessorized the outfit with a cowboy hat, black leather belt and steer buckle and black Ariat boots.

This is Taelur's 3rd year in 4-H. His hobbies include Rocketry , shooting and repairing guns.

191 Elly Fowler

Aaron is from the Meadowlark District-Oskaloosa, he is ready for any special occasion in his vest and slacks. This outfit can be worn with the bow tie for a more formal look or without the tie for a simple casual look.

Aaron is a 7 year member of the Lucky 4 4-H Club and currently serves as the Treasurer of the Club. He also serves as a 4-H Council Representative for the club.

192 Elly Fowler

193 Emily Glenn

Alyssa from Scott County, chose this black dress to model because it is a basic little black dress and it stands out from any other dress in my closet. I purchased this dress at a local boutique in my hometown. I accessorized with earrings from the same boutique. This dress stood out to me because of the texture of the fabric and the cutouts at the neckline. The cost of the dress was $46. I plan on wearing this dress for many different events such as church, scholarship and broadcasting interviews, banquets and National Honor Society activities. I believe this dress was a good investment because it will be easy to accessorize and restyle for different seasons, it is comfortable to wear and it is a classic style.

194 Emily Glenn

Shelby from the Cloverleaf 4-H Club in the Post Rock District, Beloit, is wearing a comfortable fitted polyester dress. She completes her outfit with black pumps, black jewelry and a sleek black purse. As a college freshman having an easy care dress for upcoming scholarship banquets and interviews is essential. As a tag a long Shelby selected buymanship as her first project and it has remained her favorite. It is fitting that Shelby ends her 4-H career this evening modeling this beautiful floral dress.

195 Emily Glenn

Ready to roam the halls as a freshmen at Iola High School is 8 year Southwind Extension District 4-Her Ethan. For his back to school look, Ethan chose a dressy yet comfortable dri-fit, grayish-blue T-shirt with American Flag design, and black and grey athletic shorts. He completes his outfit with black, white, and grey Nike tennis shoes. Ethan is a member of the Prairie Dell 4-H club.

This navy blue fit and flare special occasion dress with all over floral design and jewel embellishment at the waist is worn by Anna of the Cottonwood District—Ellis County. The dress has a square neckline, back zip closure, and the shell, mesh, lace trim, and lining are 100% polyester. Anna is a nine year member of the Ellis Sunflowers 4-H Club and some of her favorite projects include breeding beef, photography, and leadership. Anna wore this dress to her freshman homecoming dance and completes her look with open toe silver dress shoes, an infinity necklace, silver stud earrings, and bracelet

196 Emily Glenn

Here comes Makenzie, a 9 year member of the Soldier Boosters 4-H Club in the Meadowlark District. She is ready for game days as she starts her Junior year at Jackson Heights. She is wearing a simple skater, ocean blue, above the knee dress with a floral ocean blue and mixed pink cardigan. She has paired the dress with gray, wedged ankle boots and a long three-stoned necklace and earrings,

197 Emily Glenn

For his buymanship project this year, 9-year 4-H member Stetson, of the Highland Clover Patch 4-H Club in Doniphan County, was looking for an outfit that was versatile and could be worn for a multitude of occasions - from church to school concerts and events, to family gatherings and weddings, or just a fun night out. He accomplished his goal with this sharp ensemble. Stetson chose a dark red, cotton/polyester blend, short-sleeve, button-up shirt with gray heather trim. He decided to pair the shirt with a gray heathered dri-fit tee shirt to make the outfit more flexible. Black cotton jeans with 1% spandex gave him the look he was wanting, as well as just enough stretch to be comfortable. To complete his outfit, Stetson added a black reversible leather belt and black leather slip-on dress shoes. Stetson is 16-years-old and will be a junior at Doniphan West High School where he enjoys choir, band, and drama.

198 Emily Glenn

Hannah is from Greenwood County. She has been in the buymanship project for 9 year. She is wearing a very fashion forward dress that has many classy features. She chose this peacock blue dress because it complemented her skin tone well. The pleating and slit on the front of her dress make it very classy but also gives it some edge. She went with grey when choosing her accessories. She is a Senior at Madison High School. She enjoys competing in meats judging and livestock judging within 4H.

199 Emily Glenn

Maci is from the Lucky'Leven 4-H Club in Pottawatomie County is modeling an all over lace high low dress which she bought on sale. It features a square neckline with spaghetti straps. Maci likes this dress because of how she can change the style by wearing different accessories and cover ups. Maci chose to wear a matching scarf and shoes to accent her dress. Maci also enjoys other 4-H projects like foods and photography. She is a junior at Wamego High School where she plays varsity volleyball, basketball track and club soccer. Thank you Maci!

200 Emily Glenn

Here we see Joseph in an Imperial grey polyester and wool suit coat and matching slacks with beige highlighted pinstripes. This polished double button suit with twin pockets is ideal for any formal occasion. Under the suit, Joe's elegant look is paired with a cotton and polyester blend charcoal grey dress shirt and a trendy geometrically designed tie that includes light charcoal, navy, and lavender accents. Joe's classic look is rounded off with black socks, a belt, and defined black dress shoes. He has been a member of the College Hill 4H club in Riley County for 2 years. His favorite projects are Foods, Legos and Shooting sports. He is enjoying his first year showing at the state fair and is looking forward to continuing this tradition of state fair participation.

201 Emily Glenn

Here is Kristy, from Southwind District in Bourbon County. She is showing off her charcoal cold shoulder floral dress with silver wedges. Kristy completes the outfit with teal and ivory bracelets and a long silver necklace. Kristy likes that the dress has shoulder cut outs and that it has pockets. Kristy is involved in the beef, pets, swine, craft and citizenship projects. Kristy was on the all A's honor roll at school, league champions in basketball, volleyball and track. Kristy has volunteered at Lee's Paws and Claws Animal Shelter. She enjoys taking her dog to the local nursing home to share with the residents. She also makes crafts for the residents. Great job Kristy.

202 Emily Glenn

Mattie, a nine year member of the Countryside Crusaders 4-H Club in the Clay County River Valley District has had many new experiences this year---one of which was getting to represent her high school debate and forensics team at the National Speech and Debate Association's national tournament in Fort Lauderdale, Florida in June. She spent four days competing for the West Kansas District in the Worlds Schools Debate competition. After all that hard work, Mattie took some time to shop at the Sawgrass Mills Outlet Mall, which is where she found this classic chambray dress by Calvin Klein. It was Mattie's first time in a Bloomingdales store and she purchased the dress at 70% off the retail price. This style is fun and has a bit of vintage flair with the full skirt and shoulder bow. She accessorizes her dress with red heels and scarf that she already owned. She purchased the red bangle bracelet to complete the look and add a pop of color. Mattie will be attending Clay Center Community High School this year as a sophomore and will continue in debate and forensics as well as band, vocal music, and theatre. She plans to work hard to qualify for the national tournament again---where she will hopefully get to wear this fun dress and represent Kansas, her school, and of course 4-H.

203 Emily Glenn

204 Emily Glenn

Anthony, a Johnson County 4-H member, is sporting a charcoal suit with a blue shirt and very stylish R2D2 tie that will be the talk of the party. He is going to Washburn University for college and is majoring in Culinary Arts. He plans to get his Associate's Degree. Anthony showed rabbits and chickens at his county fair this year and also had entries in Foods and Entomology.

205 Emily Glenn

Rylee, from the Flint Hills District, has been in the Diamond 4H Club for 9 years and has participated in the buymanship project each year. This year Rylee was looking for a business professional outfit as she prepares to apply for Youth Leadership Council. Rylee was immediately drawn to the bold stripes and colors of her dress as well as flattering fit. The bell sleeves of her jacket are a fun feature that adds a stylish touch to the outfit. She feels this outfit is a reflection of her personality and can be used not only for 4-H events but also for her Forensics and FBLA activities.

206 Emily Glenn

Blakely from Wallace County, is ready for her 4-H Conference Interview in November with this fun business professional outfit. The Royal blue skirt is made with 95% Polyester and 5% spandex and is paired with a black shirt and a striped blazer. Blakely completes her outfit with a long gold necklace, and black heels. Blakely is going to be a Sophomore at Weskan High School where she will serve as FFA president.

207 Emily Glenn

Truman, a 4-Her in Sunflower District will be a Sophomore this year in High School and is a member of the Ruelton Eager Beavers. Truman has chosen a button down, orange polyester cotton dress shirt, with long sleeves, and a white cotton undershirt, with an orange & black tie, and cotton-polyester black pants. Truman accented his outfit with his black belt & cowboy boots. Truman will be ready for church or any school dance dressed in this sharp looking attire.

Elly of the Glendale Reapers Pratt County 4-H Club is modeling a sleeveless v-neck fit and flare dress. This polyester/rayon blend dress can be worn for many occasions from dressy events to casual. Elly purchased this dress because it has a slimming, fitted look. She accessorizes her dress with silver jewelry and black heels. Elly is active at Pratt High School in National Honor Society, Year Book Staff, and Choir.

208 Emily Glenn

From Southwind District Bourbon County it's Alexa. She is wearing a dress with a cutout neckline and pleated skirt, black shoes, black bracelet, black hair barrette, silver necklace and earrings. Alexa says that the shoes are her favorite part of the outfit. She loves that it has pockets and the length of the skirt and how comfortable it is to wear. She enjoys showing steers and horses at the county fair. She is also involved in cooking and visual arts. Alexa is a member and officer of the Bourbon County Junior Leaders. She did a reading and flute solo at District 4-H Days. In school Alexa is involved in track, basketball, volleyball and softball. Alexa volunteers at the local animal shelter and has donated to the local food pantry. Great job, Alexa.

209 Emily Glenn

As a Smoky Valley 4-H Club member for 9 years, from the Sunflower District, Joshua enjoys the Buymanship project. He purchased this Blue Suit on his way home from the Kansas Youth Leadership Forum by himself. Later he purchased the pin-stripe dress shirt and the paisley tie that matches perfectly with the suit. He decided that brown shoes would look the best, so he then added a brown belt. Joshua likes to dress up for many occasions and he likes the way this suit fits him. It will be a nice suit to wear to National 4-H Congress this fall.

210 Emily Glenn

Valeria is ready to go out for dinner with this black shirt and blue skirt. She loves the high-low skirt, and really loves the fact that it is a "bargain outfit!" She accessorizes her outfit with a bracelet, necklace and earrings. This is Valeria's fifth year in 4-H and she is president of The New 4-H Club. Outside of 4-H, she is a cheerleader and softball player for Lakin High School. She enjoys spending her free time with family and friends.

211 Emily Glenn

Trendy and cute is Eidree of the Smoky River Club, Gove County, modeling her floral print dress. The polyester blend, red floral dress has long chiffon sleeves with an elastic waist and scoop tie neckline. The rust color lining just peaks at the neckline. Eidree chose an ivory colored crocheted vest and long fringe to wear with this dress as well as other outfits. Last year's rust colored fringed boots still fit and are the perfect match to finish her trendy look. Eidree chooses turquoise jewelry and a smile to wear with her outfit. She has worn this outfit for several occasions and it will continue to be a favorite.

212 Emily Glenn

Showing off his fashion sense is Ross from Marshall County in this three-piece suit. This year Ross joined the FBLA organization and needed a suit. The vest was purchased last year for his 4-H buymanship project. Ross loves green and this turquoise shirt made Ross' personality pop. With so many different pieces Ross can create lots of different fashions. Ross enjoys dressing up for various events as an eight-year member of the Sunflower 4-H club. Love the look Ross.

213 Emily Glenn

Look out K-State, here comes Georgia, ready for a nice fall day on campus! She is modeling a floral, tiered, peasant blouse and her favorite pair of blue skinny jeans. She adds a brown leather jacket that was handed down to her from her older sister, a pair of taupe and brown ankle boots, and accessories to complete the outfit. Georgia was looking for something comfortable and stylish to wear to class during her sophomore of college and it looks like she found it. Georgia is a Riley County 4-H member. Good luck in the fall, Georgia!

214 Emily Glenn

215 Emily Glenn

Vanessa of the Pratt County Preston 4-H Club is strutting her stuff in this three-piece outfit that has her feeling confident and comfortable. The mustard yellow tank top is made out of rayon and spandex which results in the comfortable fit. To go over this tank, Vanessa paired it with a long sleeve blouse that is able to button in the front to transform itself into a different style. To give a more casual touch to this outfit, it's paired with a pair of high rise jeggings that are made out of cotton and spandex. To pull this entire outfit together a pair of mustard yellow wedges were needed. The shoes work perfectly with pulling colors out of all the pieces in the outfit and are incredibly easy to walk in. This entire outfit would be perfect for the first day of school or a special occasion whenever you need it.

216 Emily Glenn

Simon of the Axtell Busy Bees 4-H Club has chosen this black suit, red shirt, and red and gold tie to wear when escorting a friend to her high school prom. Simon chose the shirt and tie to complement his date's dress and borrowed his brother's bright red corvette to complete his look. He appreciates that the dress shirt is machine washable and can be dried in the dryer if removed promptly. The suit separates must be dry cleaned. He completes his outfit with a pocket square, black and red dress socks, black dress belt and shoes. Simon plans to wear these mix-and-match pieces for church, piano recitals, forensics meets and dressy school events. Simon is a 10 year 4-H member and hosted two 4-H exchange visitors this summer.

217 Emily Glenn

Emily is a member of the Sedan Willing Workers in the Rolling Prairie Extension District. With her outfit today she is ready for her first day of school. She is wearing a pair of dark boyfriend cut jeans, her shirt is a comfortable open shoulder flower-print shirt. To complete Emily's outfit she is wearing a brown pair of sandals, a simple silver cross necklace and small hoop earrings.

218 Emily Glenn

The lovely Miss Jayden, a Morton County Roll All Around 4-H member is ready for an exciting year as a Freshman at Kansas State University. Her high waisted flared jeans and front tie shirt are versatile making them a great addition to her college wardrobe. Looks Great Jayden! GO CATS!!!!

219 Emily Glenn

Braxton is from Leavenworth County, and this is his 11th year in 4-H. He is wearing a navy blue wool suit with a checked dress shirt and matching necktie. He accessorized the outfit with brown dress shoes, a brown belt, and pocket watch that he purchased while on the Kansas Electric Cooperative Youth Tour. As a high school senior, Braxton will get a lot of wear out of his outfit. He plans to wear it to interviews and many other dressy occasions.

220 Emily Glenn

Coryn from Cowley County is all set to go hang out with her friends. She is wearing her signature colors of Red and Black. Her sister Fiona got two pair of overall shorts at the beginning of the summer and she has been admiring them. So, when she went to her favorite store to find a Buymanship outfit, she fell in love with these very edgy, black studded, overalls with a cute red and black striped crop top.

She plans to wear this outfit all of the time because she LOVES IT! Her favorite part is the silver studs on the overalls, the hook and eyes on the shirt front and the multiple DEEP pockets! She also likes the striped tights that go with the stripes in her shirt. Coryn... it looks like you are ready to go have fun!

221 Emily Glenn

Daija from Doniphan County wanted an outfit that was versatile, comfortable, and easy on the pocketbook. With that in mind she went looking for a great sale. When Daija found a 40% off sign and a 30% off coupon, she knew she had hit a home run. She selected a red paisley print top of 100% polyester with a macramé trimmed square neck. The top has flutter sleeves have a small bow accent at each shoulder. She straight leg jeans are made of 95% cotton and 5% spandex giving her the comfort she wanted. Paired with her top this gives her a casual campus look for fall. However she knows a pair of khaki or black pants could quickly dress this outfit up for work. Her understated navy shoes help her turquoise brushed leather purse add just the right pop of color. Daija is enjoying wearing her outfit during her freshman year at Washburn University.

222 Emily Glenn

Atticus is ready for his Paola High School prom in his purchased dark red suit with a black shirt and bow tie. He wears black leather shoes and belt with his suit. Atticus completes the outfit with a silver chain on the pocket. This is Atticus's 8th year in 4-H. He is President of the Happy-Go-Getters and Birds of a Feather 4-H Club. Atticus won the State 4-H Energy Management Project Award this year and is looking forward to going to the 4-H National Congress in November. He will be a sophomore and enjoys FFA, golf and farming. Way to go, Atticus!

223 Emily Glenn

Chad, from the Golden Prairie Extension District, is ready for that job interview or special evening with friends in this formal outfit. Chad chose a neutral gray sports jacket, a white dress shirt, silk tie and black dress pants to complete his look. Chad chose dressy black square-toed boots to complete his formal look. Playing the trumpet at VFW events is one of Chad's activities outside of 4-H and school, and he later hopes to pursue a career as an entomologist.

224 Emily Glenn

Megan from Rooks County in the Phillips/Rooks District is wearing a teal, satin and lace dress. Her silver strappy heels accent the jeweled waistband. To further highlight the silver themed accessories Megan is wearing silver earrings and necklace. The illusion sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice compliment her body type. This dress was purchased for Megan to wear as a candle-lighter in her uncle's wedding and other formal occasions she will attend in the future. In addition to participating in the 4-H Fashion Revue project, Megan enjoys photography.

225 Emily Glenn

Jeggings seemed to be the theme for Codi from the Golden Prairie District this year. While browsing the store this navy, maroon, tan and white top caught Codi's eye to match with her navy jeggings. Of course she had to have the tan boots to complete her outfit. Codi will be attending Colby Community College in the fall majoring in Animal Science with an emphasis in Cattle A.I. She also hopes to compete on the equine riding team for the college.

226 Emily Glenn

Angelique, from Seward County, is our next model to showcase some style. Angel is wearing an outfit that displays rustic elegance. Her black and gold metallic dream catcher tank top is adorned with a black, red and white plaid duster with a fringe accent. she pairs this with distressed blue jeans. Angel has been activ in 4-H for six years and enjoys participating in sewing. In her freetime, Angel likes to play with her dogs and read as well.

227 Emily Glenn

Elyse is wearing a navy blue laced dress. Her silver accessories add a little sparkle to the look. She chose this dress for her school's winter formal last February. It is classy, and still easy to dance in. She plans to continue to wear her outfit to any other formal occasion and church. Elyse is a Junior at Goessel High School and enjoys singing, acting, and running. She is part of the Goessel Goal Getters 4-H Club in Marion County.