

Anne Lampe, West Plains District, SEAC Nominee

Anne and husband Mark live in rural Scott County- they have a registered Angus cow/calf operation. Anne is employed by the Kansas Angus Association as its manger and executive secretary. She has a home office and travels the state of Kansas. Responsibilities include member relations, publicity, breed promotion, advertising sales, event planning for youth and adults, trade shows, editing and publishing the organization's magazine style newsletter 6 times per year and its annual membership directory as well as serving as a youth adviser.

Mark and Anne have two adult sons and four grandchildren. The family are 4-H alumni and two of the grandchildren are active 4-H members in Ohio.

Anne is a past president of the American Angus Auxiliary and has served on the organization's scholarship committee. She currently chairs the Angus Women Connected Conference (a biennial national conference) and co-chairs the beef education committee and national Certified Angus Beef Cook Off Contest, an annual contest for Angus youth.

Anne served for over 10 years on the Kansas State Fair Grand Drive Committee, raising funds for the youth livestock awards and planning the Grand Drive event and youth recognition. She currently is the State Fair's beef superintendent for the youth ad open shows.

▪Anne grew up in 4-H in the state of Louisiana and actively participated in livestock, leadership, clothing, foods, photography, and citizenship projects. She was a state and national beef project winner and attended National 4-H Congress in Chicago, the National 4-H Conference and Citizenship Washington Focus. In addition to numerous local and parish (county) offices she served on the Louisiana State 4-H Executive Team (state officer).

In Scott County, Kansas she is a past community 4-H leader, project leader, chaperone and livestock judging coach. Anne has served as the county beef leader, county fair beef superintendent, livestock committee member, sale committee member and spring show committee member for over 20 years.

Anne served two terms on the Scott County Ag PDC and two terms on the Scott County Extension executive Board and 1 term as council president. Anne received the 4-H Alumni Award from Scott County in 1999 and Mark and Anne were awarded the Scott County Extension Appreciation Award in 2005 and 2013.

She is currently serving on the board of the newly formed K-State Research and Extension West Plains District and is the board chairman.

▪Anne is a avid supporter of Extension and an advocate for both youth and adult involvement in the educational opportunities, leadership and personal growth programs it offers and encompasses. She believes the while Extension is a long-time successful entity its protentional to serve communities, diverse populations/cultures, youth and adults in today's society and environment is needed more than ever and untapped.
