For 23 years, Sandy hauled crude oil locally but she is currently a substitute rural mail carrier for the United States Postal Service, and also substitutes driving a bulk mail truck when needed. She was a Girl Scout leader for several years and continues to help with the local service unit. She has been involved as a leader with Cub Scout Pack 109 (Boy Scouts of America), Plainville, for over 25 years. She is currently leading as the Cub Master, which she has done for the past several years.
