The forms included give you a guide to where pictures should be considered.

• Try not to include addresses in the photos, particularly if pictures include private residences
• If you are considering uploading images to a Facebook page, it is suggested that a separate, private page be created
• Try to take the highest quality photo you can
• Be creative and have fun!
• Please try not to take pictures of people without their permission. If you wish to take selfies or pictures of yourself at areas designated on the forms, please use the photo release provided at this link: https://bit.ly/31LeV5M
