

June 2015

To: Epsilon Sigma Phi Members

Registration is now open for the National ESP Conference to be held October 4 - 7 in Coeur d'Alene Idaho.

Several Kansas Extension faculty have been selected for recognition during the conference.

Doug Jardine will receive the North Central Region Distinguished Service Award and Debra Bolton will receive the North Central Region Individual Diversity/Multicultural Award.

Three of the 21 concurrent sessions offered during the conference will be presented by Kansas Epsilon Sigma Phi Members.

Diane Mack will present "A New Approach to Solving Community Challenges."

Trudy Rice, Jennifer Wilson, Laurie Chandler and Nadine Sigle will present "Board Leadership Series: So You Are Serving on a Board - 'Now What?'"

Laurie Chandler, Gayle Price, Trudy Rice and Stacey Warner will present "Extension Professionals Engaging Volunteers in Program Development."

All ESP members are encouraged to attend this conference!

Registration details for the conference are available at:
<http://conference1.espnational.org>

Stacey M. Warner

Alpha Rho Chapter President