Johnson County, the most populated county in Kansas, is located in northeast Kansas within the Greater Kansas City Metropolitan Area. This position will serve as a community educator/facilitator who addresses the needs of a growing and diverse suburban county regarding natural resource management and mid/small-scale agriculture. This position will direct and build the Extension Master Naturalist volunteer program to expand the reach of Extension by providing current research-based information to the public. Johnson County is a multi-agent county with seven agents and ten support staff.

TITLE: Extension Agent
PRIMARY AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY: Natural Resources and Mid/Small-Scale Agriculture
LOCATION: Olathe, Kansas
APPLICATION DATE: Applications will be accepted through March 31, 2021. Interviews will be conducted April 21, 2021.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Provide primary leadership for the development and implementation of research-based educational programming related to natural resources and mid/small agricultural producers and land management. Programming will include but is not limited to: natural resources conservation, environmental stewardship, commercial and lifestyle agronomic and livestock production and management, agricultural land management, agricultural economics, programs and policy.

2. Programming will include these steps:
   a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension’s five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow’s leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.

   b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel and evening and weekend work will be required.

   c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.

   d) Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.

   e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of a Program Focus Team.

3. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.

4. Serve as a member of the Johnson County Extension team cooperating in the planning and delivery of county-wide programming and related events.
