POSITION DESCRIPTION AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

- Lead the development, implementation, and evaluation of a comprehensive 4-H youth development program for school-aged youth in cooperation with residents, community organizations, and extension colleagues. This position will share oversight for community clubs and project management, support volunteer development, and engage with local, state, and national 4-H events.
 - The primary focus of this position is youth development, specifically in the areas of school enrichment, STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Agriculture, and Math) programming, and continued efforts to identify new audiences to serve.
- Co-supervise the county's 4-H program assistant with the Reno County Extension director.
- Successful extension programs require agents to:
 - Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water and natural resources; community vitality; health; developing tomorrow's leaders; and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
 - Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. Strategies might include educational programming in a community-based setting; events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities; use of innovative technologies; individual educational consultations; and group facilitation.
 - Collaborate with local partners to meet community and programming needs.
 - Develop and implement strategies to serve diverse audiences and to ensure K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
 - Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
 - Cultivate expertise in a subject matter competency area by engaging as a member the Youth Development Program Focus Team.
- Pursue internal and external funding to support educational programming.
- Serve as a member of the Reno County team cooperating in the planning and delivery of county wide programming and related events
