

Position Announcement

Kearny County, population 4,026, is a two agent county located in southwest Kansas. Lakin is the county seat with Deerfield 9 miles to the east on U.S. Highway 50. The primary employers are farming and ranching operations, two school districts and the Kearny County Hospital.

TITLE: Extension Agent

PRIMARY AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY: Family and Community Wellness

LOCATION: Lakin, KS

APPLICATION DATE: Applications will be accepted through February 21, 2019. Interviews will be conducted on March 12, 2019.

Responsibilities:

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Provide primary leadership for the development and implementation of research-based programming to build healthy, sustainable communities, families and individuals. Programming will be conducted with volunteers, other community vitality and family and consumer sciences professionals at the local, regional and state level. Programming may include but is not limited to: strengthening families and individuals, building community capacity, family and community health and wellness, and local volunteer development.
2. Share leadership for the development, implementation, and evaluation of the 4-H Youth Development program for school-aged youth in cooperation with volunteers and extension colleagues. The focus is youth development, adult volunteer development, youth education program development, expanding partnerships, and participation and membership growth. Programming will include but is not limited to: supporting community clubs, out-of-school programs, school enrichment, volunteer management, and outreach to create new program opportunities with existing and new community partners.
3. Share responsibility for community vitality programming that helps our communities become a better place for Kansans to live, work, and play. This is accomplished by strengthening the social, civic, economic, and technological capacity of communities through leadership development and civic engagement.
4. Programming will include these steps:
  - a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow's leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
  - b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel and evening and weekend work will be required.
  - c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
  - d) Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
  - e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of a Program Focus Team.
5. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.
6. May periodically be assigned to serve as the local unit director providing administrative oversight for the fiscal operations, coordination of personnel, development, delivery and reporting of program impact and other administrative functions assigned by the director's representative and the extension board.
7. Serve as a member of the Kearny County team cooperating in the planning and delivery of county-wide programming and related events.
