

Position Announcement

Sedgwick County is a multi-agent county in south central Kansas. Wichita is the county seat of Sedgwick County, which includes 19 other cities. The diversified urban, suburban, and rural population is near 500,000. Sedgwick County extension programs focused in the areas of Family and Consumer Sciences, 4-H Youth Development, Agriculture/Horticulture, and Community Development are conducted from a 41,000 square foot Extension Education Center located on 12 acres. The 4-H program has a strong tradition of leadership and participation in state and national 4-H events. There are 15 clubs, 5 strong county project groups, and 535 4-H members. Sedgwick County 4-H is based in nine school districts and 19 communities. This position is a part of a professional staff which includes 10 agents and 20 full and part time office and program support staff.

TITLE: Extension Agent

PRIMARY AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY: 4-H Youth Development

LOCATION: Wichita, Kansas

APPLICATION DATE: Applications will be accepted through September 16, 2019. Interviews will be conducted October 3, 2019. Please save this date as there will be no alternatives.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Extension agents are professional educators who serve as a link between Kansas State University and communities across Kansas. Agents are administratively responsible to the Director of K-State Research and Extension (represented by a designated administrator) and the local extension board.

1. Jointly lead the development, implementation, and evaluation of a comprehensive 4-H program for school-aged youth in cooperation with local residents and extension colleagues. The primary focus of this position is youth development, specifically in the areas of club management, development and support, volunteerism, support for FCS projects, leadership program, shooting sports, and youth engagement in state/national events. The selected candidate will be expected to provide programs that are research-based and designed for diverse audiences and include a variety of educational delivery methods. The agent must be able to work as part of a 4-H team including one other 4-H youth development agent, two part-time program assistants, and one office professional in the county to oversee delivery of 4-H educational programs.
2. Programming will include these steps:
 - a) Identify local needs and emerging issues related to K-State Research and Extension's five Grand Challenges (water, community vitality, health, developing tomorrow's leaders and global food systems) by engaging with program development committees and other community organizations and professionals.
 - b) Design appropriate educational strategies to engage clientele. These strategies might include delivering educational programming in a community-based setting, coordinating events and activities that provide experiential learning opportunities, using innovative technologies, providing individual educational consultations and facilitating groups seeking similar educational outcomes. Some overnight travel and evening and weekend work will be required.
 - c) Develop and implement strategies to expand the reach of educational programming to under-served audiences and to make certain K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider of educational programming.
 - d) Collect and communicate evidence of educational program impact.
 - e) Develop specialized knowledge and skills by engaging as a member of the Youth Development Program Focus Team.
3. Secure external funding such as grants, gifts and cost recovery to supplement local tax revenue to support and expand educational programming.
4. Serve as a member of the Sedgwick County Extension team cooperating in the planning and delivery of county-wide programming and related events.

QUALIFICATIONS
